MARSH & MCLENNAN AGENCY PROMOTES JULIE TRUSKOWSKI TO MANAGING DIRECTOR

Troy, Michigan – August 25, 2015 – Marsh & McLennan Agency LLC (MMA) recently appointed Julie (Barrett) Truskowski as managing director for the health and benefits practice in Troy, Mich. This is a promotion for Truskowski, who joined the organization in 2005, when it was operating as McGraw Wentworth, as an account director working with a diverse portfolio of clients.

Now, as managing director, Truskowski will oversee and coordinate assignments amongst the firm's account directors, plan analyst and client services teams, as well as continue to provide strategic group benefits planning guidance for key clients including Michigan-based manufacturers, educational institutions and service firms.

"Julie is an outstanding leader, earning the respect of her clients and MMA peers with her thoughtful, thorough and innovative approach to group benefits. With her background and expertise, she is the ideal candidate to help guide our team during this era of rapid innovation and growing complexity in group benefits and risk management," commented Thomas P. McGraw, CEO of Marsh & McLennan Agency LLC's Michigan operations.

Truskowski has worked in health care benefits for over 20 years, developing an expertise in strategic design of health care plans, private exchanges, large case implementation, carrier negotiations and complex project management. Prior to joining MMA's Michigan operations (formerly McGraw Wentworth), Truskowski was Midwest regional sales vice president with Aetna, and then a health and welfare consultant with Towers Perrin and then Watson Wyatt.

A member of the National Association of Health Underwriters (NAHU), Truskowski has spoken at several of MMA's accredited seminars and for organizations including the American Society of Employers (ASE) and Michigan Public Employer Labor Relations Association (MPELRA).

Truskowski graduated summa cum laude from Hope College in Holland, Mich., with a B.A. in business administration. A member of the Phi Beta Kappa Society, she also earned a Master's degree in business administration with a specialty in integrative management from Michigan State University. Truskowski and her family reside in Clarkston, Mich.
